TRIP II

Visit to the Guadalupe wine valley (Ruta del vino)

Baja California produces nearly 70% of Mexico's wine, and there are over 100 wineries along the Ruta del Vino (wine route) in Valle de Guadalupe. This valley has a Mediterranean microclimate that create ideal conditions for growing red wine grapes

The trip route consists of a visit to two wine houses (probably three depending on the time):

- Vinícola Pedro Domeq: Tour of the museum and cava, tasting of 4 wines and 4 tapas
- Vinícola Monte Xanic: Tour of the cellar with explanation of the production, tasting of three wines with cheese board and bread.

The tour has a cost of 45 USD. The price includes transportation. The meeting point is at the HOLIDAY INN Hotel. The tour starts at 12:00 a.m. It is recommended to bring water and a snack and have breakfast beforehand. Please, contact Michelle Fimbres to reserve your place.

TRIP III

Visit of the seven Craft beer houses (5 only)

An important Roman Catholic tradition in Mexico is the visit seven churches during the holy week celebration. For beer lovers we emulated this tradition through the visit of seven beer houses in Ensenada (actually we will do only 5). Ensenada has become a beer destination. There are several craft beer breweries, each offering a unique setting and flavor profile. We will visit five of the most important breweries in town.

Breweries

- Doble CC
- Fauna
- Irish 4 (beer garden)
- Agua mala
- Wendlandt

The tour has a cost of 30 USD and includes a beer (style to choose) at each house, transportation and snacks in one of the brewery. Meeting point is the HOLIDAY INN Hotel. The tour starts at 2:00 pm. We recommend to bring water and a snack and have a meal beforehand.
